

The Georgia Legislative Intern Program was started in the 1970's by then Lt. Governor Zell Miller.

Over 50 students from Georgia colleges and universities participate in the program each year and receive first-hand legislative experience.

The legislative session starts on the 2nd Monday in January and typically runs through the end of March (sessions are 40 calendar days).

With the help of Georgia State University, interested applicants will submit their completed applications for consideration

All applicants will interview with House and Senate staff to determine if the applicant will be considered for the program

If selected, applicants will be interviewed again to determine placement

Application and reference forms can be found at the website for the Georgia Legislative Internship Program (<https://www.legis.ga.gov/intern-program>)

Unofficial, electronic transcripts are allowed

Each applicant will submit the completed application form, a resume, a 2-5 page personal essay, a transcript, and references (at least two from professors)

Essays should

Two to five page essay indicating how your studies and experiences have prepared you to participate in the internship program, what you expect to gain from the program, and specific knowledge and skills you will contribute

Applications are to be turned in as a single PDF document

Applicants should submit their completed applications to their Campus Coordinator
